LOVING A LADY WIFE.

We find this matrimonial incident in the Quebec Journal of February 27th:

A man living near this place has a wife in Oronville. About the 1st of February he wrote her, asking for certain information. He wrote her he had been poisoned by eating cake, and that he had given some to an Indian, which nearly killed him. By the last mail the husband received the following answer from his wife:

"I have just received your letter. I was much surprised and concerned at hearing of your late misfortune. I really hope they have been exaggerated by your report, and that upon investigation you will find your health in a much better condition than you imagine."

"If, indeed, it is true that you have been so badly treated, let me beg of you to live up under your affliction, put your trust in him who directs all things for the best, and whose All-seeing eye watches over us confidentially. I have but little time to answer letters, and especially letters of so little importance."

"Oh! how sorry I feel for the poor Indian. Tell me—and quickly too—was it a buck or squaw you gave the cake to?"

"Innocence shall make False accusation blush and tyranny tremble at patience."

"In excellent health—getting along nicely. Some, one—no matter who—was telling me the other day that Thompson's colt is dead."

The British Columbian.

FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1869.

IMMIGRATION.

There are few subjects which interest this Colony more at the present time than that of attracting a large population, with a few to developing its arid and fertile valleys. When one considers all the advantages possessed by this country, it does seem impossible, to use the language of the Governor, to believe that the attractions of British Columbia will fail to obtain the notice of the world. Yet, here we are, a mere handful of people, in the tenth year of our history as a Colony, with the mineral wealth of a great territory scarcely disturbed, with millions of acres of as rich and as easily cultivated land as there is in the world, still unfurrowed. The truth is that in order to obtain the notice of the world, the world must be informed. What matters it that we possess a genial climate and resources as unbounded as they are varied, if the world is ever to remain in ignorance of the fact? The Female Immigration scheme proposed by the Council, and to carry out which His Excellency promises to appoint a Local Board, is, though small in itself, and necessarily limited in its immediate results, a step in the right direction, and one which we hope to see promptly carried out. The proposed establishment of an emigrant agency at San Francisco is equally if not more important. With the thousands constantly flowing into California, there is always a greater or less percentage that might, under proper direction, be guided to our shores. As it is now, no one comes, because not only is it impossible to obtain correct information there, with regard to this Colony, but every artifice that self-interest can possibly suggest is resorted to for the purpose of deterring emigration hither. Were there an established medium at San Francisco through which authenticated information could be disseminated, say every month, and through which those desiring to come here might readily obtain direction and advice respecting the voyage as well as the country, it is morally certain that we should be in almost immediate receipt of considerable accessions to our now horribly meagre population. San Francisco is now a great centre of population, and being in such close proximity to us, as compared with England, it is to it we must look in the first instance at least, as the means of replenishing our almost deserted territory. While upon this subject we may allude to a very important article from the Times, which we published on our first page yesterday. From that article, as well as from articles of a similar tone, which have appeared in other English papers, public opinion at home would appear to be gradually waking up to the great question of pauperism, especially viewed in connection with its bearings upon emigration to the outlying British Possessions. The subject indeed opens up a wide field for thought, and especially for the exercise of genuine philanthropy. It is not new in these columns. Considerably more than a year ago we devoted an article to the consideration of this very question, and endeavored to point out how much happier would be the result, both as regards the giver and receiver, if the millions upon millions piled, now employed in a not very successful effort to mitigate pauperism in England, were devoted towards a well digested scheme of transplanting the redundant population of the Old country, into Colonial soil. It has been said that an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. There can be no doubt that such a system as we have hinted at, if well carried out, would, in time, prove a complete cure for pauperism at home. Not only would it relieve England of a burthen and a blot, but it would transform an element of weakness into one of strength. These people, if properly placed in the colonies, would contribute to the strength and wealth of the Empire. As has been shown, what it costs to maintain them in a condition of comparative wretchedness for two years at home would suffice for outfit and passage to the colonies. The development of this new idea in England will be watched with deep interest from a colonial point of view; and in the meantime it is to be hoped our own Government will not lose sight of its duty, as a part of the Empire, and to this Colony. In any case, we earnestly urge the necessity of activity in carrying into operation the Female Immigration scheme, and the San Francisco agency. One word more respecting the latter. There is at this moment resident in San Francisco a gentleman of many years' experience in this Colony, and in every respect peculiarly fitted to act as agent. We allude to Mr. Homer. His familiarity with the country would enable him to render good service in such a capacity; and, besides, he could in all probability work the agency in conjunction with his present employment as a shipping agent, thereby rendering any considerable charge upon the Colonial revenue unnecessary. Were such an agency in operation, it would be the duty of Government to have, say, monthly pamphlets printed at the Government printing office and sent down for distribution. These pamphlets would contain a statement of the yield of our various mines, together with statistics from the agricultural districts, and all and sundry such information as would tend to give those in quest of a home a correct idea of this Colony. In this way also our new and liberal Mining Law could be most effectually brought under the notice of capitalists and miners in California and the other States and Territories on the Pacific.

CRICKET MATCH.—The return match between the fleet and the Victorians came off yesterday at Beacon Hill, and resulted in an easy victory by the latter. The day was not one of the most pleasant for the occasion, yet there was a goodly number present to witness the sport, amongst whom were Mrs. Seymour and several officers of the Government and the fleet.
The following is the scoring, as furnished us by Mr. Peel, one of the scorers, from which it will be seen that the Victorians were winners by a majority of 172.

The highest score made was by Mr. J. Wilson one of the Victorians, who marked 41. The highest score on the part of the fleet, was 18, which was made by Hastings. The bowling of the Victorians was very good, whilst that of the fleet was very loose, as will be seen by the great number of byes and wides on the part of the latter.

CHARGE OF DESERTING.—John Anderson, was brought before the police Court yesterday on a charge of being a deserter. Corporal John Kell, of Her Majesty's Ship Zealous, who gave the prisoner in charge, testified that he arrested him on suspicion of his being a deserter from the navy in 1859, and he also suspected the prisoner of being guilty of enticing men to desert. The accused stated that he came to California in 1852, since which time he had been in California and Oregon, and on Monday last came over on the steamer from the Sound, for the purpose of having a hunt.
The party who was going with him failed to meet him, and he missed his return passage in the steamer, was a stranger in the city and knew no person. The prisoner was remanded for one day.

A SUGGESTION.—It is understood that H. M. Ship Zealous will shortly leave this station, but the precise time of sailing will not be known until Admiral Hastings receives instructions, probably by next mail. Both the Admiral and his officers have succeeded in gaining the respect of all classes during their stay. It would appear to be fitting that some popular mark of respect should be paid to the Admiral and his officers before they leave us. A ball or a dinner or a picnic is the usual form such things take.
In this instance it appears to us that of the three, the picnic would be preferable. A ball is a sort of select affair, in which the general public do not participate. The same remark will apply to a dinner, with the additional objection that the ladies would be left out in the cold. In a picnic all could participate. A holiday could be proclaimed in the City, and arrangements made for a general resort to some one of the numerous delightful spots in the neighbourhood of Victoria. Of course fine weather would be a necessary contingency in the matter. Would it not be well for the Mayor and some of our leading citizens to take the subject into timely consideration? The Admiral has proved himself too good a friend of the Colony to be permitted to depart unnoticed.

Since writing the above, we have been informed that the Admiral will go on board about the 27th inst., and sail on or about the 7th proximo.

ROYAL ENTERTAINMENT.—His Excellency Governor Seymour entertained the Members of the Legislative Council at dinner on Wednesday evening. Messrs. Humphreys and Robson were unavoidably prevented from being present. The Band of the Victoria Rifle Volunteers played a selection of music during the evening. On the cloth being removed the Governor proposed the health of her Majesty the Queen, the Band playing "God save the Queen." It being St. Patrick's Day, the Governor then gave the toast of "Success to Ireland," the Band playing a selection of Irish airs.

During the evening Mrs. Seymour received a number of guests. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs.
Young, Mr. McCrea, Mr. & Mrs.
Trutch, Mr. & Mrs. O'Reilly, Mr. &
Mrs. Drake, Capt. Ball, Dr. Carrall, Mr. Ring, Mr. & Mrs. Jackson, Mr. &
Mrs. Elliot, Mrs. & Miss Neelham, Dr. Davie, Mr. & Mrs. Wood, Dr.
Helmcken, Mayor Trimble, Mr. Hamley, Mr. Good, Mr. & Mrs. Hankin, Mr.
Barnaby, Mr. & Mrs. McDonald, Dr.
& Mrs. Powell, Mr. Havelock, and others. Music and dancing were kept up till a late hour, after which supper was served.

ENGLAND AND HER CIVIL OFFICERS.— As far as ordinances can effect such a purpose, all the civil servants of the British Crown must either live within their means or resign their profession, an order to this effect having recently been promulgated. The employees are not hereafter to be allowed to resort to accommodation bills to meet their extravagancies. If a man receives a salary he must live upon it, or else it out from his private fortune, but he must not borrow of money lenders if he wishes to retain his position. This may appear as interfering with a man's right to ruin himself, which every Englishman imagines was guaranteed to him by the Magna Charta, but there is great wisdom in such a regulation. It will keep spendthrifts out of public employment, and it will be a safeguard to protect the higher interests of the State.

THE CONTRACT LAW.—The contract for the building to be erected for Mr.
Southgate, on the corner of Government and Port streets, has been awarded to the firm of Kinsman & Styles. Mr. Grahamslaw has taken the sub-contract for the carpenter work. There were three tenders sent in, as follows:—Mr. Humber, $5,050; Messrs. Kinsman & Styles, $5,400; Mr. T. S. Allatt, $5,450. Mr. Humber, being the lowest, was offered the contract, but declined, when it was awarded to Messrs. Kinsman & Styles.
This figuring must have been pretty close, as the difference in all three tenders is very little. We have reason to believe the contract has fallen into good hands.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The str.
Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, did not sail till noon yesterday, having been engaged in towing out the Prince of Wales. The Enterprise went via Na-naimo, taking up the officers of the J. L. Stephens. There were a number of passengers for the mainland, amongst whom were the Rev. E.
White, the Rev. A. Browning, Mr.
Barnard, Hon. H. M. Ball, Mr. Ash-well, and Mr. Ward. The last named gentleman is en route to Kootenay.

BOAT RACE.—A boat race has been arranged for Good Friday, between the Maple Leaf Crew, in the "Spray," and the Lachapelle Crew, in "Amaliere." The course will be from the Dredger, round Dead Man's Island and back. Stakes $100. Start at 2 p.m.

THE G. S. WAGNER arrived from Alaska yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, having left Sitka on the 11th, two days previous to the sailing of the John L. Stephens. The Wright called at Tongas and Wrangle, leaving the latter place on Sunday last at 10 o'clock.
We are indebted to Mr. Tarbell for a list of passengers. The Wright will sail for Portland this morning at 8 o'clock.

NANAIMO.—There are now 15,000 tons of coal ready for shipment. The miners are to be "hooked" a "bit" on the ton. The miners have established a co-operative store, with a view of obtaining their supplies at reduced rates.

NO TELEGRAMS.—The line being down between this and Seattle last night, we are without any telegraphic news this morning.
We presume this interruption is due to the gale which prevailed yesterday.

THE LADIES' VELOCIPED.—The Victoria Velocipede that is to be raffled, can be seen at the Alhambra Hall, where anybody wishing to practice can do so in the ball room.

THE DRAMA.—We understand that the entertainment proposed for the 21st, will be given by the fleet alone, and not in conjunction with the local Dramatic Club.

A GRIEVANCE.

Mr. Eniron.—Believing that your columns are always open for the ex-posure of any irregularities that may occur among us, I cannot allow a circumstance to pass without calling the attention of the parties concerned to it, through the medium of your Journal. Some twelve months ago, a contract was called for supplying H.
M. Navy at Esquimalt with Butcher Meat and Bread. The latter was awarded to Mr. McKenzie, of Craigflower, who had been a contractor in former years; and the thing which I now have to complain of is only a renewal of what was done under his former contract, viz., employing men from the Navy at ship's pay, one shilling per diem. Now, under such arrangements, it is neither fair to other dealers nor to those bakers in Victoria who are at all times ready and willing to work at a fair rate of wages, provided that those wages are paid when due. I feel sure, from what I know of Admiral Hastings, his attention has only to be called to the injustice of such a practice when it will be, as on a former occasion, speedily put a stop to.

Apologising for this troubling you,
I remain, yours, &c.,
PAIR PLAY.
(The subject to which our correspondent alludes would appear to demand attention, as it is obviously unfair to the regular dealers to allow a continuance of such a practice.—Ed.]

THE ADDRESS NUISANCE.—The Canadian papers complain of the practice of boring the Governor General with addresses. It is stated that while His Excellency was at Montreal no fewer than eleven addresses were presented to him in a single day!

A nugget of gold worth $9,000 was recently mined out of the bowels of the earth in New South Wales. It was found near a spot where three weeks before a lump of the auriferous, valued at $9,000, was revealed to the searchers.

An aged Puritan Divine preached to the newly-married couples of his congregation upon a part of Psalm lxxiii, 7: "And abundantly of peace so long as the moon endureth." In a recent trial, for bribery in an English election, it is reported that the evidence only showed that the accused had been "inprudently charitable," which is rather good.
In Switzerland one who kills another is liable for the debts of the murdered man.
This suggests to some one an alteration of an old motto to—"Sweet it is to die for one's tailor."

A mother reproved her three-year-old son for eating ice-cream. The analytical infant replied: "I didn't eat 'em, mamma; 'I only sucked the juice out of 'em!" One of the most profitable forms of mendacity in Europe is that of standing at the door of Catholic Churches, and giving a dash of holy water and a blessing to those who enter. Three recent cases are mentioned, two of whom have died with tortures respectively of 40,000 and 75,000 francs, and the third has retired from business with the sum of 20,000 francs.
